

Chart 6

The $3,221 FEHBP Benchmark as Adjusted for the Combination of Poverty and Health Status

OUs in each IHS Area cluster together because health status rates are available only as an area-wide average. Variations within each cluster are due to poverty variations among counties served by OUs. OUs above the benchmark have lower health status and higher poverty than OUs below the benchmark.

